"The Brief Box represents a significant milestone in STAR's commitment to advancing design literacy within Singapore's art education. This curated collection of 60 design briefs, developed together with our Design partners in education, responds to evolving syllabuses and design's growing importance in nurturing creative, critical and empathetic learners."

As a pedagogical tool, The Brief Box provides structure whilst inspiring open inquiry, supporting clarity in lesson design whilst inviting creativity within authentic constraints. Each brief offers opportunities to develop 21st-century competencies, including critical thinking, communication and collaboration, anchored in big ideas to ensure conceptually rich learning. Each brief represents an opportunity to unlock students' empathy and creativity."
